

Claudia Narumi Graefe

Intercultural Training •
Coaching •
Japan Consulting •

Consulting and training focuses:

- Intercultural Training and Consulting for international cooperation and communication
- Special expertise: Communication and cooperation between Japanese vs. Western culture
- Team-Development of multinational/global teams
- Leadership development programs for international/global leaders
- Coaching for international leaders
- preparing for and coaching during long term international assignments

Professional Experience:

- Since 1999: Independent Intercultural Trainer and Consultant
 - for people from more than 30 countries and 5 continents
 - in Germany, Japan, USA and several European countries
 - for large multinational corporations as well as small and medium sized companies
 - in many different industries (including machinery, automobile, chemistry, electronics, medical equipment, pharmaceutical, service)
- Since 2013: Trainer and Consultant for Coverdale (Network Member)
- Part time work for Siemens and Infineon (marketing)
- Several sojourns in Japan, New Zealand and Belgium for study and work

Education and training:

- School education at German, Japanese and New Zealand schools
- M.A. in Political Science (international relations), Economics University of Munich (LMU)
- Further studies in Intercultural Communication and Japanese Studies
- Training in the field of Intercultural Training and Consulting by
 - SQT Siemens Qualification und Training
 - SIETAR Society for Intercultural Training, Education and Research Deutschland, Europa, Japan
 - SIIC Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication in Portland, Oregon, USA
- ICPT Intercultural Competence for Practitioners and Trainers, Winterthur, Switzerland
- Training as consultant and trainer at Coverdale Germany
- Certified Training as Coach at Dietz Training und Partner (acknowledged by DBVC and IOBC)